One Street Over

AGM Music Hall of Fame inductee (2022). Nashville pedigree, now in the Pacific Northwest! R&B-influenced pop, Yacht rock, funk & feel-good grooves

About

One Street Over combines powerhouse vocals, exceptional musicianship, and amazing chemistry for a show that connects across generations. With roots in Nashville and a home base in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, the band brings yacht rock, classic rock, pop, blues, danceable hits, and original R&B/funk to stages throughout the Pacific Northwest and beyond.

At its heart are three members: lead vocalist Bridgette Lewis, guitarist and musical director Michael Lewis, and keyboardist Jordan Lewis. Bridgette's expressive voice and commanding performances are central to the band's sound. An American Idol Golden Ticket recipient, she has also earned callbacks from The Voice and America's Got Talent. Michael brings more than four decades of experience as a guitarist, producer, and recording artist, with credits that include Jon Anderson, Jean-Luc Ponty and Mary Wilson of the Supremes. Keyboardist, composer, and producer Jordan Lewis rounds out the trio with funky chops, musical versatility, and a quiet wit that complements the onstage chemistry.

From smooth grooves to dance-floor favorites, One Street Over builds each performance around the audience and occasion. Their Electric Trio combines live vocals, guitar, and keyboards with custom-produced backing tracks for a full sound in a compact format. A five-piece band and an expanded horn-band lineup offer additional options for larger events.

Whether performing at a wedding, corporate celebration, festival, winery, or concert, One Street Over delivers polished, family-friendly entertainment with personality, musical depth, and plenty of energy. The band was inducted into the AGM Hall of Fame in 2022.
